

Akili

ACADEMY OF NEW ORLEANS

Week of May 26th-May 29th

Weekly Reminder:

PBIS EOY celebration: Our EOY PBIS celebration will take place this Friday, May 29th. It will cost 40 gator bucks for students in grades K-4 and 60 gator bucks for students in grades 5-7. Students will be able to participate in an obstacle course, water slide, Plum Street Sno-balls, nachos, music, gator store booth, and one or two surprises! Please encourage your scholars to show our school values to earn gator bucks. K-3 Scholars are allowed to wear a one piece bathing suit or tank top and shorts. 4-7 Scholars are allowed to wear a tank top and shorts. All scholars will wear these items to school under dress down attire. Only students who have paid gator bucks for the PBIS celebration may dress down.

EOY Awards June 4th: We invite all parents to our End of the Year awards which will take place next Thursday, June 4th in the cafeteria. The times for each grade are as follows: 8:00 - 10:00 am (1st and 2nd grade), 10:00 am-12:00 pm (3rd and 4th grade), 12:00 pm-2:00 pm (5th-7th grade), and 2:00-4:00 pm (Kindergarten).

Report Card Day June 5th: Our final report card conferences will take place on Friday, June 5th from 7:30-3:00 pm. Parents do not have to sign up for conferences.

Free Akili Bike Clinic June 5th: On June 5th, Akili will host a free bike clinic featuring safety classes, a rodeo safety course, and bike repair opportunities. Please make sure to stop by the courtyard after conferences to visit the bike clinic. More details will follow with a flyer.

NOPL summer reading program: The New Orleans Public Library is offering over 200 programs for children ages 0 to 12 and teens ages 11 to 18. Students who read 8 books or 800 pages will receive prizes (including a raffle for a bike for students over 11). Please stop by your local library for more information.
