

Week of October 6th - October 10th

Weekly Reminders:

Literacy Information Night: This Thursday, October 9th, we will have our first literacy night. Join us from 5:15-6:15 in the school library to learn about our literacy program and ways to best help your scholar.

School IDs: All students must wear school id badges during the day. Students in grades K-4 id badges stay at school. Students in grades 5-7 take their id badges home and are responsible for bringing them to school every day. Scholars who lose their ID badges must pay a replacement fee of $2.00. Please encourage your scholar to keep up with their id.

NO SCHOOL October 9th-14th: Akili Academy will be closed October 9th- October 13th for Fall Break. On October 14th, school will be open as Akili staff participates in Data Day. This allows us to review students' scores from interim assessments and strategically plan for the next six academic weeks. School will resume on October 15th for all scholars.

STAND UP! (Stand University for Parents): Akili Academy and Stand for Children Louisiana are hosting an introductory meeting for a family engagement course geared at preparing your children for college and beyond. The meeting will be held in the cafeteria next Wednesday, October 15, 2014 from 6pm to 7pm. $5.00 Gator Bucks will be given to all parents who are present. Please see the flyer sent home today for more details.

Girl Scouts: If you are interested in registering your daughter for Girls Scouts please reach out to Ms. Gracin at zgracin@crescentcityschools.org by the end of the week. All meetings and activities will take place on the weekends. Parents must be willing to volunteer and provide their own transportation.

Communicating Transportation changes: All communications about transportation changes must be done by calling the main office at (504)355-4172. We will not accept any notes or messages via scholars. Please call before 3:00 pm during regular school days and 1:00 pm on early dismissal days.
